LONNIE DONEGAN - SUNDOWN (Recorded in tandem with the star-studded Puttin' On The Style, which had returned LONNIE DONEGAN to the UK? charts in early 1978 after a 15-year absence, SUNDOWN perhaps remains Lonnie's finest LP. Frequently referred to as his Cajun album, it featured Country heavies Albert Lee, Doug Kershaw, Emory Gordy and Mickey Raphael alongside top session players like Richard Bennett, Jim Keltner and Ray Cooper, and it placed Lonnie firmly in a Country-Rock setting. This special expanded edition, which includes six previously unreleased bonus tracks, marks its first official appearance on CD. Includes: All Out And Down, Home, Sundown, Louisiana Sun, The Cajun Stripper, Morning Light, On A Monday, Home - alt take, All Out And Down - alt take, Dreaming My Dreams, Mama's Got The Know-How)

UNIVERSAL Â£8

LONNIE DONEGAN - PUTTIN' ON THE STYLE - THE LOST 1978 ALBUM

(Recorded during 1977, at a relatively low ebb in LONNIE DONEGAN's career, PUTTIN' ON THE STYLE was very much a labour of love for producer Adam Faith, and the various Rock luminaries - Ringo Starr, Elton John, Albert Lee, Brian May, Rory Gallagher, Ron Wood, Leo Sayer, Nicky Hopkins, Klaus Voorman, Jim Keltner, among many others - whose gratis contributions amounted to some serious dues-paying. The LP received rave reviews and Lonnie was subsequently rewarded with his first chart record in 15 years. This special expanded edition, which features four previously unreleased bonus tracks. Includes: Rock Island Line, Have A Drink On Me, Ham 'n' Eggs, The Grand Coulee Dam, London Is Behind Me, I'm Just A Rolling Stone, Lost John, Drop Down Baby, Diggin' My Potatoes)

THE FIREBALLS - EXOTIC GUITARS FROM THE CLOVIS VAULTS

(The latest in Ace's series of limited edition collectors' items features Clovis, New Mexico's favourite sons. This is a limited pressing of 1500 copies. When "Wide World Hits by The String-A-Longs" was issued by Atco in 1968, buyers could hardly have been aware that they were actually purchasing an instrumental LP by The Fireballs. The band were simply masquerading under the name of the String-A-Longs at Norman Petty's behest. This album is the centrepiece of this CD, plus the non-album track 'Popi' which was also issued under the String-A-Longs name. After much searching in the Clovis vaults we have been fortunate enough to discover an additional five titles - versions of the Doors' 'Light My Fire', the Supremes' 'Love Child', Johnny Nash's 'Hold Me Tight', Classic IV's 'Stormy' and Otis Redding's 'Dock Of The Bay' - which were originally recorded for the project but not included on the album.' Ace have also discovered nine more previously unreleased Fireballs' tracks, making this a veritable feast for the instrumental fan. Tracks include: Torquette, Frisky, Little Toy, Holiday Love, Find Me A Golden Street, Love Child, Stormy, Light My Fire, Drugstore Cowboy, Holly Hop, Dock Of The Bay, Popi, More, Lonely Fire, Blue Guitar, Black Grass, Silence Is Golden)

THE MILLER SISTERS - GOT YOU ON MY MIND

(Not to be confused with the same-named New York quintet. The Miller Sisters were in fact sisters-in-law Elsie Jo Wages-Miller and Mildred "Millie" Miller, a Mississippi duo whose breath-taking close vocal harmonies saw them record not only in their own right for Sam Phillips' label, but also grace the recordings of other Sun notables. Jo was married to guitarist Roy Miller, Millie's brother, and initially they performed as The Miller Trio in and around the Memphis area. The next stage in the evolution of C&W thrushes, theirs was a sound carved out in the honky-tonks of the South where traditional Country sentiment was beginning to give way to a harder edged rockin' sound. Blending their voices with seemingly effortless perfection, Phillips saw in the girls an opportunity to emulate The Davis Sisters' success, and the first of three singles, 'Someday You Will Pay' b/w 'You Didn't Think I Would', was released in Spring 1955. Two further discs followed, including the ever-popular 'Ten Cats Down', a fine example of Sun's mid-50s femme rocker sound. They can also be heard performing background vocals on Glenn Honeycutt and Cast King's recordings, as well as a demo by Gene Simmons, who is credited with introducing them into the Sun fold, tracks which are also included on this compilation. Includes: Somebody You Will Pay, You Didn't Think I Would, There's No Right Way To Do Me Wrong, Ten Cats Down, Finders Keepers, Woody, You Can Tell Me, My Isle Of Golden Dreams, It Only Hurts For A Little While, also includes tracks with Glenn Honeycutt, Cast King & Gene Simmons - with rare alternate versions)

RICK NELSON - THE LAST TIME AROUND - 1970 - 1982

(7CD box set, 134 tracks & 144 page hardcover book. The final installment in Bear Family's documentation of Rick Nelson's recording career includes all of his late career recordings from 1970-1982. Many fans insist that his last years were his best! This set includes his last major hit, 'Garden Party', and it features the complete 1978 'Back To Vienna' sessions produced by Al Kooper. Most of the songs were previously unreleased! For the first time, the complete 1979 'The Memphis Sessions' songs in their originally-recorded form! Many rare and unreleased songs, including the long-rumored, never-heard 1974 studio versions of Mystery Train and California Free. -- 'The Last Time Around' brings to a close Bear Family's definitive 3-box overview of Rick Nelson's recording career. Still with his pioneering country-rock Stone Canyon Band, this set begins with four albums - 'Rick Sings Nelson,' 'Rudy The Fifth,' 'Garden Party' and 'Windfall'. 'Garden Party,' of course, featured his last major hit in which he announced his refusal to become an oldies act. The set continues with the 'Intakes' album recorded for Epic, and 'Playing To Win,' originally released on Capitol. And there's more! For the first time in their entirety, Bear Family presents two previously unreleased albums: 'Back To Vienna' produced in Hollywood by Al Kooper with a band of all-star session players; and 'The Memphis Sessions,' with a sympathetic band of (mostly) locals, produced by Larry Rogers. And still more surprises include an entire, live performance recorded with the second-edition Stone Canyon Band heard here for the first time, as well as several single-only, previously unreleased studio sessions, and even a few commercials. -- The 144-page album-sized hardcover book includes dozens of pictures and other artwork; a full sessionography; and a 25,000-word history by Todd Everett, author of the acclaimed notes for the earlier volumes in this series, 'An American Dream' and 'For You.' With the compelling first-person accounts, you'll hear the real stories behind the sessions. -- Though Rick's later recordings assembled here didn't match the commercial impact of his earlier songs, they certainly maintained the quality) (FULL TRACK LISTING AVAILABLE OR ON THE BIM BAM WEB-SITE) (FREE U.K P+P)

I HATE CHERRIES

(The middle-1950s gave rise to a re-birth of the big-voiced female blues shouters who had first been heard on records some three decades earlier with the arrival of Ma Rainey, Bessie Smith and many others who followed in their footsteps. In the immediate aftermath of World War II, cocktail jazz and torchy ballad singers seemed to predominate among the femme record names, what with the popularity of Nellie Lutcher, Dinah Washington, at al holding sway with the record buying public. But the brand of jump blues pioneered by Louis Jordan and his followers also gave rise to the return of full-throated female warblers which seemed fully underway by 1953, when Willie Mae "Big Mama" Thornton and Big Maybelle Smith scored their Top 10 R&B successes with "Hound Dog" and "Gabbins' Blues" among others. This CD compilation attempts to survey some of the less-conspicuous examples of big-voiced female R&B shouters. Incs..Rebecca Lea, Helen Foster, Diana Cole, Pearl Woods, Linda Hayes, Ruth McFadden, Sugar & Spice, Dakota Staton, Beverly Wright, Anita Tucker, Bee Bee Queen, Blanche Thomas, The Gay Charmers, Vikki Nelson, Vicki Evans, Chubby Newsome, Anne Kaye, Dorothy Forbes with David Clowney's Orch)

DANA GILLESPIE - I REST MY CASE

Ace's resident diva, Dana Gillespie, returns with her first studio blues album for the label since 2003's 'Staying Power'.

All 13 tracks are written by Dana, either on her own or with members of her top-notch band. Dana has told us that she thinks it's the best record she's made for several years and we think it's cracking.

It's a potent mix of her tough-and-witty blues stompers (Funk Me, It's Hot!) together with some lyrical ballads that touch on the heartache of break up and loss. All are shot through with Dana's characteristic wit. Full lyrics are included in the booklet.

Track listing:

1. FUNK ME, IT'S HOT!, 2. IT'S GONNA BE A LONG NIGHT, 3. TWENTY FOUR SEVEN, 4. WHEN CRIES BECOME SIGHS, 5. YOUR LOVE IS TRUE, 6. STRANGE ARE THE WAYS OF LOVE, 7. GAME OVER , 8. THE HOUSE OF THE BLUES, 9. GUILTY AS HELL, 10. I REST MY CASE, 11. WALL-TO-WALL LOVE, 12. UNIFY, 13. COULD'VE, SHOULD'VE, WOULD'VE)

HEY BEACH GIRLS - FEMALE SURF 'N' DRAG 1961 - 1966

To bridge the gap between volumes of 'Where The Girls Are', the guys who curate that series have taken Stephen J McParland's book Bikinis, Black Denim & Bitchen Sounds as their inspiration to dream up this fun new diversion to tide girl group buffs over. It'll fill a few gaps in the collections of aficionados of surf, drag and hot rod music too, no doubt.

The influence of California's Beach Boys permeates 'Hey, Beach Girls!' as it did the world of music in 1963. Brian Wilson and his cohorts had not long zoomed to the Top 3 with 'Surfin' USA' when an opportunist East Coast record company exec with his eye on the latest pop fads concocted a plan to grab a piece of the action. Bestowing the Surfer Girls moniker on a new young female trio, he ushered them into the studio to cut 'Draggin' Wagon' to the very same tune.

Over in Paris, France's top girl group Les Gam's flipped over the same Beach Boys platter to give 'Shut Down' their inimitable yã-yã treatment and in Australia teenager Little Pattie stormed the charts with 'He's My Blonde-Headed, Stompie Wompie, Real Gone Surfer Guy'.

It's doubtful that much surfing went on in Detroit, but the Supremes dipped their toes in the water with 'Surfer Boy', one of two numbers they got to sing in the movie Beach Ball. In Philadelphia, epicentre of dance craze culture, the Orlons and Dee Dee Sharp took a break from the watusi and the mashed potato to cut tracks for the rare 'Everybody's Goin' Surfin' LP: 'Surfin' and 'Riding The Waves' make their CD debut here.

Other highlights include hideously obscure and collectable decks from the Westwoods, the Fleetwoods, the Beach Girls, Ellie Gee (short for Greenwich, natch) & the Jets, the Surfettes and Andrea Carroll, all of whose contributions are also new to CD. Not forgetting, of course, Ginger, Diane and Brian Wilson's wife Marilyn, otherwise known as the Honeys, without whom no surfing girls compilation would be complete.

Track listing:

1. CYCLE SET - Donna Loren, 2. DON'T DRAG NO MORE - Susan Lynne, 3. HEY BEACH BOY - Andrea Carroll, 4. SHOOT THE CURL - The Honeys, 5. PRAY FOR SURF - The Honeys, 6. THE ACE STORY VOLUME 2

Another uproarious helping of good time, mostly New Orleans-recorded R&B and rock'n'roll from the vaults of Ace Records of Jackson, Mississippi.

The first dozen tracks were released by Ace almost 30 years ago as the vinyl volume 2 in this series. For the CD generation we've added a further dozen of the best sides from Johnny Vincent's Ace catalogue.

Mastered mostly from fresh transfers of original US Ace master tapes and sounding better than ever, most of this material has been unavailable on CD for ten years and some tracks have never been on legit CD at all.

Extensively annotated and with a generous smattering of label shots and contemporary ephemera, this happy hour of golden age rhythm and blues upholds the high standard of volume one and still leaves plenty more delights in store for the remaining three volumes, to be reissued during 2011.

Track listing:

1. BLOW WIND BLOW - Junior Gordon, 2. BAD BOOGIE - Lightnin' Hopkins, 3. SILLY DILLY WOMAN - Mercy Baby, 4. ROBERTA - Frankie Ford, 5. I LOVE TO ROCK'N'ROLL - Eddie Bo, 6. TEENAGE ROCK - Little Booker, 15. SLEEPING IN THE GROUND - Sammy Myers, 16. MY TALK DIDN'T DO ANY GOOD - Frankie Lee Sims, 17. I WANT TO BE YOUR MAN - Frankie Ford, 18. LITTLE GIRL - Earl King, 19. THE MILLER SISTERS - GOT YOU ON MY MIND

(Not to be confused with the same-named New York quintet. The Miller Sisters were in fact sisters-in-law Elsie Jo Wages-Miller and Mildred Millie Miller, a Mississippi duo whose breath-taking close vocal harmonies saw them record not only in their own right for Sam Phillips' label, but also grace the recordings of other Sun notables. Jo was married to guitarist Roy Miller, Millie's brother, and initially they performed as The Miller Trio in and around the Memphis area. The next stage in the evolution of C&W thrushes, theirs was a sound carved out in the honky-tonks of the South where traditional Country sentiment was beginning to give way to a harder edged rockin' sound. Blending their voices with seemingly effortless perfection, Phillips saw in the girls an opportunity to emulate The Davis Sisters' success, and the first of three singles, 'Someday You Will Pay' b/w 'You Didn't Think I Would', was released in Spring 1955. Two further discs followed, including the ever-popular 'Ten Cats Down', a fine example of Sun's mid-50s femme rocker sound. They can also be heard performing background vocals on Glenn Honeycutt and Cast King's recordings, as well as a demo by Gene Simmons, who is credited with introducing them into the Sun fold, tracks which are also included on this compilation. Includes: Somebody You Will Pay, You Didn't Think I Would, There's No Right Way To Do Me Wrong, Ten Cats Down, Finders Keepers, Woody, You Can Tell Me, My Isle Of Golden Dreams, It Only Hurts For A Little While, also includes tracks with Glenn Honeycutt, Cast King & Gene Simmons - with rare alternate versions)

SONNY WEST - BIG CITY WOMAN

(In 1956 Sonny West bought a new Martin guitar and decided to have his name painted on it. Trying to make his name different from the numerous Jazz and Blues artists named Sonny, the idea of finding a different spelling sounded okay and that's how the painter put the name as Sonee West. When the time came for 'Rock-Ola Ruby' / 'Sweet Rockin' Baby' to be released as West's first record, the novelty spelling was kept, although it was Norman Petty who suggested the change back to the usual spelling for future releases. Now you have the change to own a cool repro credited to the right name for the very first time!! Fifty-four years after the legendary piece of wax came out. THE CD IS ALL NEW RECORDINGS.)

IMELDA MAY - MAYHEM

The eagerly awaited album from one of Universal Music's newest priority artists - Imelda May. Featuring the huge singles 'Mayhem', 'Psycho' & 'Tainted Love'. This is punk-infused rockabilly from the coolest woman on the planet!

This album is made up of a fusion of surf guitars, blues and rockabilly - but with an edge that comes from some even more eclectic influences. The first single 'Psycho' channels the spirit of early PJ Harvey, whilst the heartbreakingly poignant 'Kentish Town Waltz' conjures an image of Chrissie Hynde at her most reflective. 'Mayhem', the upcoming single, clocking in at just under three minutes is a rockabilly whirlwind, showcasing Imelda's bluesy vocals and rootsy sound.

Imelda says of her new album: "I'm over the moon with how Mayhem has turned out - I hope people enjoy it. I feel I've made the album I wanted that reflects the spectrum of all my influences from music past but is a record firmly in the here & now". Features Darrel Higham on guitar

BUDDY HOLLY & FRIENDS - BUDDY'S BUDDIES

(Over the last three years, El Toro Records has been leading the field in systematically reissuing the neglected legacy of the late, great Buddy Holly. When Universal finally announced a box set of his complete recordings last year we thought that our task was over - but not so! The complete set turned out to be far from complete; so this final Buddy Holly release from El Toro Records has gathered the material ignored by the otherwise exemplary Universal box set, notably all those commercial recordings which featured Buddy as session-musician-cum-producer from his golden years of 1957-58 and a bonus CD to collate all the remaining radio/TV interviews and the live radio/TV/promo clips from 1958 that hadn't been featured in our previous volumes. Sandwiched in between, and taking advantage of our title of 'Buddy's Buddies', we have a jam-packed compilation CD of talented Texas artists with whom Buddy crossed paths in the 1950s. Rave on!)

THE MEMPHIS JUKEBOX Volume 2

(For almost twenty years, the King of Rock 'n' Roll would relax at his Graceland home by listening to his personal jukebox filled with the records he had amassed over many years. These were the songs he loved and the music that inspired him - the tunes that made him 'shake, rattle and roll'.

There is no doubt that Elvis was one of the most influential recording artists of the 20th Century. He dared to blend African-American influenced Blues with Gospel, Bluegrass and Country. This unique sound became Rock 'n' Roll, and those influences can still be heard across many music genres today. Fast-forward to today, and there is still a fascination with Elvis Presley and his legacy that no other artist can match.

Whilst there have been many releases over the years that have claimed to feature the music that inspired Elvis, there has never been a verifiable album that truly showcases the actual recordings and artists that influenced and entertained him, both in his formative years and at the height of his fame. Until now, that is.

It has long been known that Elvis, an avid music collector, kept a personal jukebox at Graceland. The whereabouts of these 45's had always eluded memorabilia investigators, but in October 2009 the mystery was solved when they were put up for auction. And now Vee-Tone Records - an independent UK music label, has just released two volumes of music based on this very collection of singles: The Memphis Jukebox (1 & 2).

David Gillespie of Vee-Tone Records said: 'This is a truly unique and historic collection. Whilst many of the records individually will have been heard before, together they give a remarkable insight into Elvis' life and musical influences. Every time you press 'play' to listen to this collection, you are recreating a moment in time; a moment in Elvis' life when he, himself, would press 'play' on his personal jukebox in Graceland'.

'As many music lovers know, a music collection can be a very personal thing. Not only does it reveal your musical tastes, but it can chart the ups and downs in your life; it can paint a personal picture of your unique spirit, personality and character. The Memphis Jukebox collections strip away the hype and the commercial aspects of Elvis and leaves behind the bare essence of the man himself. We are hugely excited to be bringing this unique and historic collection to the eyes and ears of the world'.

DVD: WANDA JACKSON - THE SWEET LADY WITH THE NASTY VOICE - THE DOCUMENTARY

(THE SWEET LADY WITH THE NASTY VOICE is the culmination of a two-year journey with Wanda Jackson, in performances across the United States and Europe, and features rock immortals in interviews and rare footage.

The Sweet Lady With the Nasty Voice, is the story of Wanda Jackson, a country singer who turned into the queen of rockabilly. Her wild and raw style paved the way for female rock stars that includes the likes of Janis Joplin and Chrissie Hynde. During the 1950's she toured with Elvis Presley, Jerry Lee Lewis and Buddy Holly. Her story is told through vintage films of her as a teenager strumming her guitar with a vengeance and snarling lyrics of songs like her biggest hit 'Let's Have a Party' and through interviews with Bruce Springsteen, Elvis Costello, and Jim Phantom. Sweet Lady documents the recording of Jackson's new CD release I Remember Elvis, and follows her tour across the U.S. and Europe. Another Elvis, Elvis Costello, is also featured, as an advocate of inducting Jackson into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Costello penned a letter urging it to induct Jackson, who, he said, 'was making a sound that was wild and raw as any rocker, man or woman, when other women were asking for the doggie in the window.' Performers Jackson toured with, highlighted in archival footage throughout this tour doc, include: Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash and Jerry Lee Lewis. Presley, whom Jackson dated, was influential in Jackson's choice to move from country music to the male-dominated world of rockabilly.

Among those Interviewed are Elvis Costello, Patti Scialfa, Bruce Springsteen, Lemmy Kilmister (Motorhead), Slim Jim Phantom (The Stray Cats), and Terry Stewart, President of The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.)
